GDPR - Important information about how we use your personal details

Your membership details are maintained securely on paper and computer files for Society use only in accordance with the Data Protection Act 2018 and General Data Protection Regulations.

A portrait photograph of you and every member will be taken and displayed on the Avoncroft notice board each Society night so that members can recognise other members.

Please note that your name and images may be used by the Society on its website, the Annual Handbook and Programme, social media, newspapers and in connection with outside competitions including storing information within the BPS PhotoEntry competition database.

You should also note that the Society uses several Google Groups distribution lists for communicating with members. All members' email addresses will be added to the main list and the specialised lists as necessary.

Privacy note:

BPS uses Google Groups to keep in touch with members. If you send an email to a BPS Google Group, all recipients in that Group will see your full email address.

It is possible that with incoming email, your email address may also become visible to other members depending upon whether certain individual's own mailboxes can interrogate the Google Group email list.

Please indicate you understand how we use your information [] Enter 'X'

2. MEMBERSHIP CONDITIONS FOR APPEARING IN PHOTOGRAPHS and VIDEOS

The area in and around the Society's premises and outside events organised away may be used for photography and to record video. The following conditions apply.

By your presence in and around the Society's premises or outside events, you grant your permission for you and anyone accompanying you to be photographed and/or recorded. Photographs and video recordings may appear in any type of media without prior notification, compensation and/or credit or other consideration to you.

Please indicate you understand these membership conditions [] Enter 'X'

You may ask at any time for a copy of the details held in your name, change details or remove them and all history. Should you become aware of a breach or misuse of personal data albeit your own or another member, you must immediately inform the Webmaster, Chairman or Secretary.
